

DARK MATTER 2017 DARKROOM RESIDENCY AND EXHIBITION APPLICATION

PhotoAccess invites artists at all stages of their careers to develop and showcase contemporary photo-based art in a supportive and stimulating artistic environment. The PhotoAccess Huw Davies Gallery is dedicated to the contemporary photo-based arts, and presents a dynamic program of exhibitions across its three spaces.

PhotoAccess is home to the only publicly-accessible darkroom in the ACT region, and supports the development of contemporary darkroom practice through exhibitions, courses and residency programs. The Dark Matter residency is designed to encourage all darkroom-based practice. The resident will have free and extended access to the darkroom (including chemicals) for the duration of the residency. The residency is intended to support the completion of one body of work, to be exhibited at the conclusion of the residency.

THE FINE PRINT

The Dark Matter residency will be offered from March to November 2017, culminating in a solo exhibition in the PhotoAccess Huw Davies Gallery (tall and long spaces) from 9th-26th November 2017. The PhotoAccess Huw Davies Gallery has standard opening hours: Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday 10am-4pm, Friday 10am-7pm, and Saturday and Sunday 12noon-4pm (closed public holidays). PhotoAccess takes a 30% commission on sales.

PhotoAccess provides: basic technical advice and assistance throughout the residency; assistance with the curation, installation, documentation and promotion of the exhibition; printed copies of a B&W exhibition catalogue, including an essay or introduction discussing the work and the artist, plus a pdf colour version of the exhibition catalogue; media releases and coordination of media enquiries; design, printing and mailout of invitations; an opening night event, including catering; exhibition minding during gallery hours (except for Sundays), and after hours protection by a back to base security alarm system; sale of works and liaison with buyers.

The artist will be expected to: produce a body of work during the residency using the PhotoAccess darkroom, to be exhibited at the conclusion of the residency; assist with preparation of the exhibition catalogue and media material by providing high-res images and an artist statement; provide any hanging equipment they may require; curate, install and pack down the exhibition; make themselves available for interviews and other media activities helping to promote their exhibition and PhotoAccess; be available on Sundays to mind their exhibition and undertake the other responsibilities of Sunday volunteers (PhotoAccess can arrange a minder at a fee of $25 per hour if needed); present a public talk or demonstration in conjunction with their exhibition.

Note: applications will not be returned, so please do not send original material.
